Sheldon R-VIII Reading/Learning Contract Student-Parent-Title I Reading Teacher-Principal

In order to foster a love of learning and to meet high standards of academic achievement, it is vital that the student, parent(s), Title I Reading Teacher, and school establish and maintain a positive educational relationship. This partnership should be based on shared responsibilities and ongoing communication between everyone.

Student	Parent(s)	Title I Reading Teacher	Principal
As a student, I will: 🐾Attend school every day that I am able; 🐾Come to school prepared to learn; 🐾Ask for help when I need it; 🐾Respect all teachers, staff, peers, and myself; 🐾Respect all school property; 🐾Be safe; 🐾Follow all classroom rules and expectations; 🐾Always do my best.	As a parent, I will: 🐾 See that my child is punctual and attends school regularly; 🐾 Encourage a positive attitude toward school; 🐾 Encourage my child to read; 🐾Provide a quiet study time at home and encourage good study habits; 🐾Communicate and work with teachers and school staff in a positive manner to support and challenge my child; 🐾Encourage my child to always do their best.	As the Title I Reading Teacher, I will: 🐾Work with classroom teachers to provide support for each student; 🐾Provide additional help and monitoring for students in areas they have not mastered; 🐾Utilize techniques and materials to deliver the best possible means of improving the student's academic progress; 🐾Communicate with parents/guardians regarding student's learning progress. 🐾Encourage my students to always do their best.	As the principal, I will: 🐾Maintain a positive and safe learning environment; 🐾Promote high standards and expectations of academic achievement and behavior; 🐾Provide opportunities for parents to volunteer, participate, and observe in school activities; 🐾🐾Communicate with parents/guardians regarding student's learning progress. 🐾Encourage students to always do their best.
